

Oded Yones

Born in Jerusalem, graduated from the Fine Arts department at Bezalel Academy for Arts and Design. Currently live and works in Tel Aviv. His works move between poles of conscious and subconscious action and thus explore themes of freedom and control, drawing on and mixing elements from mythological, scientific and mundane semantic fields to create spaces that require a process of encoding.