

Lior Waterman

(born 1975), an artist, lives and works in Tel Aviv and lectures at the Bezalel Art Department since 2008.

Koma6 magazine founder His work spans various areas of practice on the spectrum between plastic and performative. Waterman's work is an ongoing investigation of events which appears as results of the encounter between consciousness and matter, language and mud.