

Eldar Krainer

Live and works in Tel Aviv. Graduated from Bezalel Academy for Arts and Design, Jerusalem.

His practice evokes abnormal relations with objects and their ability to extract a sense of power and control over the human body which he's intrigued by. His sculptures/products are experiences as tools for constructing an Identity and facing issues of self-commodification in a hyper-capitalistic world.